Dan'l H. Pike went to Fort Scott Friday.

J. M. Allen and J. A. Eaton went to Topeka Sunday.

W. H. Nation and John Hall spent Sunday in Chanute.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Cambern are still confined to their bed by sickness.

Miss Elizabeth LaBar, of Parsons, spent Sunday with her parents in this city.

Frank Greene and his surveying corps were working in Stark last week.

E. W. Kingsbury, of Fort Scott, was in the city the latter part of last week.

J. M. Allen returned from Topeka Friday, where he had been for two weeks.

J. J. Jones, of Chanute, was transacting business at the court house Tuesday.

R. N. Allen, of Chanute, was attending to legal matters in our city Tuesday.

J. L. Denison and Frank Bardwell were attending to business in Savonburg Saturday.

Mrs. Ben. J. Smith and daughter Vera, of Ava, Mo., are the guests of H. Lodge this week.

Lew Mason returned Sunday from numerous points in the Territory. He has been buying hides and furs.

Ed Sullivan and O. G. Elliott, of Thayer, spent Sunday with some of the feminine gender of our city.

P. Foley, manager of the Foley Ry. Printing Co. of Parsons, was the guest of Mrs. C. E. Harbaugh Saturday.

The L. A. S. of S. of V's of this city have been invited to assist in mustering a society at Chanute on the 6th of February.

Mrs. H. F. Hentzen entertained a number of friends last Friday night, in honor of Misses Minnie Hentzen and Birdie Miller, of St. Paul.

The Litz Hamlyn Co. closed their series of entertainments here Thursday last by repeating the Cuban Trio by request. They left Friday for St. Paul. The members of this troupe are ladies and gentlemen, give a good entertainment and should have good patronage wherever they go.

Fredonia.

Fredonia, Kans., Jan. 26, 1897.—Jas. J. Goings and Florence L. Bailey obtained marriage license on the 21st inst.

Sam'l Baughman, of Neodesha, was in town Monday.

The mother of Jas. M. Kennedy of Chetopa township died Monday of this week.

T. C. Copeland, the book binder of Winfield, is doing work in his line this week.

District court will commence Tuesday morning, Feb. 22nd, at 10 o'clock a. m., as per statute provided.

The county commissioners will meet in special session this week to receive the new jail from the contractors.

The ice men feel that the accepted time has come, and are losing no time in taking advantage of the recent cold snap.

The Andrews Opera Co. played to a crowded house last Friday night. This excellent company always gets a crowd in Fredonia.

The selection of the new United States senator seems to meet with the general approval of the populists and democrats, and the republicans say that if he must be a populist, none would suit them better than W. A. Harris.

There are 81 cases on the docket for the coming February term and are thus distributed: Foreclosures 25, divorce 18, recovery on note 10, recovery on account 8, criminal 6, quieting title 6, railroad 2, settlement of estate 3, partition of real estate 2, reduction of taxes 1.

The new county jail will be turned over to the commissioners by the contractors this week, and Wilson county can then say she has a jail that is not surpassed by any other county in the state. The work has been well done and the plans and specifications carefully carried out.

The following cases have been recently filed in the district court: J. M. Adair vs W. A. Aronhalt et al; R. N. Allen, of Chanute, attorney for plaintiff.

Knox College vs George C. Barber et al, with Amos & Amos, of Humboldt, attorneys.
Madison J. Francis vs Catharine Francis; action for divorce.

Leanna.

Leanna, Kas., Jan. 26, 1897.—A singing class of 20 members was organized at the church last Friday evening. Otis Smith spent Sunday with friends in Stark.

The fire in Chanute, Saturday night was plainly visible at this place.

There will be a spelling school next Thursday evening if the weather permits.

Clint Scanlin visited his sister, Mrs. Ed Kelly and family near Chanute last Sunday.

Will Holsten and Florence Snodgrass were transacting business in Chanute last Monday.

A Mr. Rowden, of Arkansas, brother-in-law to B. F. Dunagan, has rented the Beatty place and is occupying the same.

Hanson Bros. have sold several hundred bushels of corn to John Kelley and are hauling the same while the roads are solid.

A Mr. Sauer, who lives north of Leanna, has a public sale next Monday and is, we understand going to return to the Hoosier state.

Geo. Boomhower, of Moran, an old time friend of Florence Snodgrass, has been paying him a visit the past week and returned to his home Sunday.

Capt. Gibson and son Mark shipped four loads of cattle and hogs to Kansas City last Monday. They loaded at Savonburg and had a choice lot of stock.

The Baer boys gave a dance to their friends last Friday night, about twenty couples being present and all enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. Supper was served at midnight.

Dr. Reynolds, of Savonburg, was called to see Grandma Wheeler this week, Dr. Courtney being sick. Mrs. Wheeler has been confined to her bed all winter and there is little or no hope of her recovery.

The nights are milder merry by the laughter of the skaters as they glide over the ice with no thought of the future, until their feet go heavenward and they suddenly realize that life is not all joy and sunshine.

Fred Haymaker, of Strong City, paid his father a visit last week. Fred is agent for the Wells, Fargo Express Co. at Strong City but is talking of resigning his position to move on his farm and try farming awhile.

Will Holsten is putting in his time in the blacksmith shop this week. Will makes no pretensions to being a smith but does good work all the same and merely as an accommodation for his neighbors. We still want a blacksmith.

Grandma Reed has in her possession a looking glass over 100 years old, and it is still in good condition except the glass which is becoming somewhat blurred. It was bought by her great grand mother when the latter went to house keeping.

Dr. Courtney is still a very sick man and his friends are becoming alarmed at his condition. No one in the community is more missed or more needed than the Dr. and all unite in the hope that he may soon be restored to his family and friends.

Protracted meeting commences next Sunday night with Rev. Saunders, of Erie, in charge. Mr. Saunders is well liked by our people and prospects are good for a general awakening all along the line and sinners brought to a realizing sense of their condition.

Old Mr. Wisberg is lying at deaths door. He has been bed fast for the greater part of two years and has been a great sufferer all of the time. There is no possible hope for his recovery and he is waiting for death to end his agony. He is a native of Sweden.

Regular preaching service at the Chappel last Sunday morning but, on account of the severe cold weather, it was decided to have no evening service and the pastor went to Chanute to assist in the protracted meeting at the Methodist church at that place.

Fred Catton and Miss Myrtle Sniff were married last Thursday evening. They are among our most popular young people and begin life with the wishes of their many friends. Several invited guests were present and after the wedding all were invited to partake of a sumptuous wedding supper.

St. Paul.

St. Paul, Kan., Jan. 27.—Henry Ashford is working in the printing office this week.

Miss Mary Heffley went to Girard today.

Skating is good and the boys are happy.

C. S. Nation was down from Chanute Monday.

D. Zehner is visiting his daughter in Galena this week.

Mrs. C. A. Cox, of Chanute, visited her parents, Sunday.

J. A. Hutchings, who has been in Texas has returned home.

Rev. Mellows friends gave him a pound party last Friday night.

Mrs. F. A. Norwood is visiting Mrs. Ella Mowry, of Cherryvale.

W. W. O'Brien shipped a car load of cattle to Kansas City Tuesday.

Bird Miller and Mamie Hentzen were visiting friends in Erie one day last week.

The Litz-Hamlyn Dramatic Co. went to Chetopa last Sunday and will play there.

G. K. Warren Post, No. 144 G. A. R. of this place installed officers last Saturday night.

J. W. Huffman has received a fine music box which he will give to the customer who buys the most goods in a certain length of time.

The Litz-Hamlyn Dramatic Co. played at Koenig's hall last Friday and Saturday evenings. It is a good company and their plays were appreciated by everybody.

Galesburg.

Galesburg, Kan., Jan. 27, 1897.—Dr. Hies, of Urbana, was in town on business Monday.

F. E. Enlow was reading the signs in Parsons Monday.

J. E. Majors, of Indiana, is visiting in this neighborhood.

G. M. Coffman, our genial postmaster, made Parsons a business visit Saturday.

Addison Scientific Electric Belt entertainers are billed for one week, beginning Wednesday night.

The Select Friends will give an entertainment next Friday night. Oysters, cake and coffee will be served.

W. C. Lane has returned from Louisiana, where he has been with a loan of horses. He reports a fair market.
